Albion, and afterward returned to the home farm and attended the district school nearby. On October 6, 1881, he married Elzada Hines. She was born in Richland County, Ohio, and came to Noble County with her parents and received her education here.

Mr. and Mrs. McWilliams have two children. Mina M. is the wife of A. L. Budd, of Greene Township. Carlos P. is a graduate of the Albion High School and also attended the Tri-State College at Angola, Indiana. He now lives on the home farm. He married Helen Earnhart, and has two children, John C. and George H.

Frank W. McWilliams is a member of Albion Lodge No. 178, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, and also belongs to the Eastern Star. He is a democrat and is a stockholder in the Farmers State Bank and a stockholder and director in the grist mill at Albion.

Isaiah Smith is a farmer both by inheritance and by choice, and has spent all his life on the old Smith homestead in Spencer Township, DeKalb County. His model country home is located three and a half miles southeast of Spencerville, close to the Allen County line.

Mr. Smith was born on that farm November 23, 1856, a son of Levi and Harriet (Robb) Smith. His father was born in Mahoning County, Ohio, February 22, 1828, a son of Peter and Elizabeth Smith, natives of Pennsylvania, and he grew up a farm boy and shoemaker's apprentice. In 1849 he married Harriet Robb, a native of Ohio, and daughter of Jacob and Elizabeth Robb. In the same year he bought land in Portage County, Ohio, and in 1854 removed to DeKalb County, Indiana. He began here with eighty acres of partially improved land, and many years before his death was possessor of a highly improved farm of 320 acres, and possessed ample means for all his needs. He lived on the farm until his death in September, 1900. His wife passed away in April, 1904. They were members of the Methodist Church, and he was for a number of years a leading democrat in his section of the county. He was especially liberal in behalf of his church and always favored public improvements. He and his wife had two sons, Ira E. and Isaiah.

Isaiah Smith grew up on the home farm where he has always lived and had a common school education. In 1878 he married Eliza Sibert. They have two children, Samuel L., who is married and lives in Spencer Township, and Emery R., who lives in the same Township and is married. The mother of these sons died in 1887. June 17, 1888, Mr. Smith married Delilah Kinsley. She was born in Allen County, Indiana, March 12, 1861. To this union were born three children: Effie, born July 20, 1889, wife of James Stewart; Warren, born July 30, 1893, and still at home; Clara, born April 10, 1899. Mrs. Smith is an active member of the Methodist Church. Mr. Smith is a democrat. In addition to his inheritance of 160 acres of the old homestead he bought 150 acres more and has 310 acres under complete and successful operation for general farming and stockraising.

Samuel Hook, present trustee of Stafford Township, DeKalb County, is a farmer on the extreme eastern line of the county and has spent practically all his life in that one locality. His home is in section 16.

Kalb County, Indiana, when a young man and after his marriage settled on land in Stafford Township. His first wife was Rachel Miller, who died in 1861. She was the mother of four children: Mary A., wife of John Zimmerman, of Defiance County, Ohio; John J., a prosperous farmer in Stafford Township; Amanda and Sarah, both deceased. Henry Hook married Ursula Strohl for his second wife. She is still living on the same farm with her son. By his second marriage there were seven children, five of whom are still living: William, of Defiance County; Ida, wife of Uri Murphy, in Allen County, Indiana; Irene, Samuel and Rosa. Henry Hook besides being a prosperous farmer was a leader in local affairs and at one time served as trustee of Stafford Township.

Samuel Hook grew up on the home farm and was educated in the district schools. He was a small child when his father died and when he became old enough he took charge of the homestead and at present owns 140 acres, but manages and cultivates 320 acres. This extensive property he uses for general farming and stockraising.

Mr. Hook has always been a democrat. He served four years as township assessor and on November 5, 1918, was elected township trustee. He had a majority of six votes over his opponent though the township is normally republican by about ten. He has also been active as a member of the County Central Committee of his party.

John L. Anspaugh. It is the good, honest record of farmers and capable citizens that bring the Anspaugh family frequently into the annals of Steuben County. Several of the name have given good accounts of themselves, including Mr. John L. Anspaugh, who grew up in Steuben County and for a number of years has been one of the chief farmers in the Crooked Lake district of Pleasant Township.

He was born in Williams County, Ohio, September 5, 1860. His grandparents, Jacob and Barbara Anspaugh, were natives of Pennsylvania and settled in Stark County, Ohio, in 1808, and moved to Williams County in 1844, where Jacob Anspaugh died in October, 1857, and his wife in 1874. John Anspaugh, father of John L., was born in Stark County, Ohio, and married Sarah Ann Cain, who was born in Harrison County, Ohio, in 1830. John Anspaugh lived for several years in Williams County, Ohio, and in March, 1870, settled in section 5 of Richland Township, Steuben County, where he acquired a good farm and where he did his duties as a private citizen and a worthy member of the community for many years.

John L. Anspaugh, who was ten years old when the family came to Steuben County, finished his education in the district schools of Richland Township, and began farming in that township when a young man. In 1889 he moved to Pleasant Township and in 1892 became superintendent of the Steuben County Farm. He held that office until he had rounded out a term of twenty years and six months, and had made a record of administration entitled to the highest praise and commendation. He left the County Farm in 1912 and has since been identified with his own business interests in Pleasant Township. In 1915 he built the home where he now lives on the banks of Crooked Lake.

Crooked Lake. That is his home farm, and he also has 160 acres in section 31 of Millgrove Township.

All of this property represents the steady accumulation of years of hard work, thrifty management and successful farming.

September 5, 1885, he married Cora B. Richardson, daughter of Henry Richardson, a well known family of Pleasant Township spoken of more in detail on other pages. Mr. and Mrs. Anspaugh have one son, Glenn E., who is a graduate of the Tri-State Normal College at Angola and is now looking after one of his father's farms.

David W. Eberly is a successful farmer and stockman in Swan Township of Noble County, and for years has been one of the public spirited citizens of that locality, having to his credit a most efficient administration as township trustee for six years.

He was born in Greene Township of Noble County January 1, 1863, son of David D. and Margaret (Kanagy) Eberly, the former a native of Pennsylvania and the latter of Ohio. After their marriage in Ohio they moved to Indiana and settled in Allen County, later in Whitley County, and from there came to Noble County, where they spent the rest of their days. Both were active members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the father was a republican voter. There were five children, three living; Susanna, wife of John Waterson; Zachariah and Ruanna, both deceased; Emma, wife of Eli Spear; and David W.

David W. Eberly grew up on the home farm, had a district school education, and lived at home to the age of twenty-one, but from the age of seventeen has been self-supporting and by industry and intelligent management has carved his own destiny without particular help from anyone.

He married Miss Dessie Krider. At the time of his marriage he had bought a small piece of land, and he took his bride to that farm and in that one locality has steadily worked toward better fortune and now owns one of the best farms in the township, comprising ninety-one acres devoted to general crops and livestock. Mr. and Mrs. Eberly have two children: Bertha, wife of Frank Fulk, of Swan Township, and Leslie, who is still at home.

The family are members of the Church of God, and Mr. Eberly is affiliated with Churubusco Lodge No. 37, Knights of Pythias, Churubusco Lodge No. 515, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, and is a member of the Eastern Star lodge of the same place. He is a stockholder in the Exchange Bank of Churubusco. He is keenly interested in local improvements and has served as superintendent of the county stone road, and his term as township trustee from 1908 to 1914 was signalized by many important services in behalf of the public schools and other matters entrusted to his official charge. Mr. Eberly is a republican in politics.

A. Frank Wilson, a well-to-do farmer of Richland Township in Steuben County, has made the successive years of his active career count for steady progress towards better things and is regarded as one of the most useful members of his home community.

He was born in Otsego Township, on the old Wilson homestead, March 9, 1872, a son of Alexander G. and Mary Ann (Maxwell) Wilson. This was born there March 17, 1872, a son of Henry Jrsula (Strohl) Hook. Henry Hook was born ermany, and was eleven years of age when ht to the United States by his parents, who l in Summit County, Ohio, where his father the rest of his life. GEORGE W. TROSTLE.

Among the citizens of Concord township, DeKalb county, Indiana, who have built up comfortable homes and surrounded themselves with valuable landed estates and personal property, few have attained a higher degree of success than the subject of this sketch. With few opportunities except what his own efforts were capable of mastering and with many discouragements to overcome, he has made an exceptional success in life and in his old age has the gratification of knowing that the community in which he has resided has been benefited by his presence and his counsel.

George W. Trostle, one of the successful farmers and substantial citizens of Concord township, this county, was born on August 12, 1843, in Stark county, Ohio, and is the son of William and Elizabeth (Swiggart) Trostle, both of whom are natives of Pennsylvania. They were the parents of four children, namely: George W.; Eliza Solsbury, deceased; Thomas B., deceased, and Lucinda, also deceased.

The subject of this sketch received his education in the common schools of his native state and about forty years ago came to Indiana and was here married to Sarah Sewell, the daughter of Joseph and America Sewell, natives of Ohio. To this union were born the following children: Abner W., of Garrett, this county; Mary A., who lives with her parents at home, and Mrs. America A. Tustisan, who lives on a farm in Concord township, this county. About thirty years ago George W. Trostle came to DeKalb county and about twenty-three years ago located on his fine farm of forty acres in Concord township, to the cultivation and improvement of which he has since devoted his attention. His place is well improved in every respect and indicates the owner to be a man of discrimination and excellent taste.

On February 15, 1862, George W. Trostle gave evidence of his patriotic spirit by enlisting for service in Company F, Forty-eighth Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry, in defense of his country, and for four years he proved a valiant and courageous soldier, being honorably discharged from the service on May 9, 1866. He is a member of the John C. Kerns Post No. 144, Grand
